Shall We Rejoice

Gladness comes with a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed and assisted by the pleasant laxative remedy Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

ed on account of the increasing of his orange crop.

Mr. Henry Braddock who has been visiting relatives here for the past week left for his home at Miami Sunday.

Some of the neighbors around here would do well to follow Mr. Gaftaeny's example in beautifying his grounds.

Miss Ardella Cain gave a card party Tuesday night. Those invited were Miss Kittie Ryall, Miss Lula McCain, Call Norwood and Reggie Kitching.

There is to be a Christmas tree at the Methodist Church, Saturday, December 24th. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Quite a nice little program has been arranged as follows:

Song
Scripture Reading, Matt. II, 1-2
Song "Merry Xmas" School
"What May Little Children Bring" Four Children
Recitation "The Sun of Righteousness" Nettie Mills
Exercise "Nine Children"

"Words of Christ" Four Girls
Exercise "Gifts for Xmas" Five Children
Song "There's a Guiding Star" Choir

THE TREE OF TREES

A TREE there is that all year round
Puts out its blossoms everywhere
In every happy home it's found,
And once a year its fruit is fair,
It blooms unseen, but none the less
Its blossoms yield a peerless fruit.
As high as heaven its branches press
And deep as love it sends its root.

Our thoughts of those to memory dear
Will fill it with a radiant bloom
Whose fragrance charms the weary year
And floods with light our days of gloom
A whispered wish, a childish sigh,
Will make a hopeful blossom spring,
And when the waiting months go by
The tree the longed for fruit will bring

The fruit it bears what art can show?
All kinds of sweets and wondrous toys
How can a tree so truly know
What gifts to bring for girls and boys
For old and young its branches bend
Beneath their burden of delight
With gifts and trinkets without end
To cheer the heart and glad the sight

And when old Santa Claus comes round
All white with snow, but full of fun,
He plucks the presents that abound
And leaves a gift with every one.
He is the prince of woodsmen bold,
For he it is, and none but he,
Who gives the world to have and hold
The strangely fruitful Christmas tree.

A STORY IN THREE PARTS

(PART ONE)

Bryan Begins An Aggressive Campaign

SOMETHING ABOUT

The Man Who Is Going to the United States Senate

HE was born on his father's farm near Fort Mason, then in Orange, now in Lake County, Florida, and if elected United States senator will be 39 years of age when he takes his seat.

HE is the brother of the late Senator William James Bryan, and son of John Milton Bryan, a native of Hamilton County, Florida, who was a confederate soldier, a member of the legislature of 1875, a pioneer in the political history of Florida, and an appointee of Governor Bloxham on the railroad commission created in 1897.

HE spent his boyhood days on his father's farm; grew to young manhood on the prairies of Ocala County; received his early education in the country schools of that county, and afterwards attended and graduated from Emory College, under Bishop Candler of Georgia.

HE later graduated from the law school at Washington and Lee University where he studied under Charles A. Graves, now the best known member of the law faculty of the University of Virginia, and the late John Randolph Tucker, author of a monumental work on the federal constitution and joint author of the Tucker-Culbertson Act, establishing the present system of federal courts.

HE moved to Jacksonville from the country 16 years ago, for the same purpose that probably induced Mr. Blount to move to Pensacola and Mr. Stockton to Jacksonville, from country towns.

HE has, by sheer force of industry and ability worked up a large and lucrative general law practice; he has never specialized on any single branch of the law, but has made himself proficient in all its branches. The judges before whom, and the lawyers with or against whom, he has tried cases, say that he is one of the ablest court room lawyers in Florida; the judges of the supreme court say that his many briefs and arguments in that court evidence great thoughtfulness, skill and learning.

HE has, in his busy life, found time to devote to the service of the people and he received no compensation for that service. He was the first chairman of the Board of Control and as such worked for the upbuilding of Florida's schools. His colleagues, and the faculties, and the students of the several institutions will tell you the value of his work.

HE has attended national and state conventions of the democratic party and has been a close student of men, issues and politics.

HE has been over the State in three campaigns preaching the cause of the common people.

HE is the best qualified man in the race to initiate and secure legislation in the interest of the common people.

HE prosecuted the Jacksonville Ice Trust out of existence, as acting Solicitor of Duval County.

HE has never represented a public service corporation, nor has he assisted a railroad company to prevent or delay the enforcement of an order of the railroad commission, reducing freight or passenger rates.

He Has Not Made the Protection of Corporate Interests His Life Study

HE is a strong man physically; a clean man morally; a big man mentally.
